The sock social given by division one of the L. B. S. in the Presbyterian church last Friday evening was a pleasant social affair. A fine program was enjoyed, as was also the dainty lunch served afterward in the dining room.

J. H. Allender, of Detroit, promoter of the electric railway from Detroit to Yale, was here on Friday last and stated that Memphis and Emmett were very much interested in the new line and had their committees out securing bonus notes, and were meeting with success.

number of stars are planning to go up to Brown City as an evening there is sure to mean an especially pleasant time.

A large attendance greeted Rev.

Bradford on Sunday evening after announcing that he would take for his subject "John Wesley." Rev. Geach and his people of the Methodist Episcopal church decided that it would be interesting for them as the subject was the founder of Methodism, so the two bodies united in this evening's worship.

Will Brown met with an accident last week by falling off his wagon, which was loaded with coal and lum-

WHAT CHILDREN NEED NOW

In spite of the best care mothers can give them this weather brings sickness to many children. Mrs. T. Neureiter, Evanston, Ill., writes: "Foley's Honeyey and Tar cured my boy of a severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. It is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It stops lagrippe colds. H. T.
